

ONE YEAR ON 5 MEDIA WORKERS JAILED FOR DOING THEIR JOBS

It has been one year since media workers from the Unity Weekly newspaper were sentenced as a result of their work as journalists. They are currently serving a seven year prison sentence in Pakkoku prison in central Myanmar.

Amnesty International calls on the Ministry of Information and the Myanmar National Human Rights Commission to work actively to secure their immediate and unconditional release.

From left to right; Paing Thet Kyaw, Lu Maw Naing, Tint San, Sithu Soe and Yarzar Oo.

JOURNALISM IS NOT A CRIME
#FreeUnity5

AMNESTY
INTERNATIONAL

